the electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fulld may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, slungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cutthe long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., nas given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts.

Dr. Miles' Esctorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principal that all nervous and many other difficulties originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from oplates or dangerous drugs. It is free from oplates or dangerous drugs.

MYSTERY

Seals the Lips of the Cutter Corwin's Captain.

As a Usual Thing Naval Officers Connected With the Revenue Service Freely Impart Information - A Suspicion That War Has Begun in Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.-Newspaper men are hot because of the treatment they recived at the hands of Capt. Munger, of the revenue cutter Corwin. Especially has the revenue officer disgusted newspaper men by his churlishness. As a rule navy men and officers connected with the revenue service cheerfully impart information not in conflict with naval etiquette to newspaper men.

The reason for Munger's action in refusing to allow any communication with his vessel, is probably chagrin at the fact that the sailing of the Corwin for Honolulu from here was announced in the newspapers two days before she sailed. Munger made strenuous efforts to conceal the fact that he was going to Honolulu, and even after the news papers had published the news, he emphatically denied that Honolulu was his destination.

It is believed here that the Corwin brought the answer of the provisional government to Minister Willis' demand for surrender. That reply is undoubtedly in the hands of the state department at Washington, and from the present indications Washington will have to be looked to for news. Hawaiian Consul Wilder expressed the belief that the Corwin had his government's answer, and when asked what he thought that answer was said: "I think that the provisional government has informed Minister Willis that it considers the Hawaiian question in the hands of congress, and will submit, if they submit at all, only to the dictates of that body."

There is great activity at the navvyard at Mare Island, and suspicion is excited that there is fighting going on in Hawaii, and that United States war vessels will quickly start for the scene

A GOLD BRICK.

A Laborer's Mysterious Find Sets U. S

Secret Service Men at Work. DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 8.-The local police are mystified over finding a gold brick in the suburbs of the city. weeks ago Conrad Johnson, a laborer, was digging in his yard, when he struck what he thought was a large, oblong piece of brass, and with it a bottle of gold paint.

At a brass foundry he was told that the metal was worth more than brass, and a few days later a peddler offered him $500 for it. Then he took it to a local jewelry house, where he was told that the metal was six carats gold, and worth about $1,500. John kept the brick, but informed the police of his find, and United States secret service officers are now working on the case. They believe the find is part of the outfit of a gold brick swindling gang, who buried it where it was found, and then were unable to return and recover it.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 8.-The through freight trains on the Ohio Biver railroad, both from here to Wheeling and from here to Huntington, were taken off Friday night. The move created ng the employes. The quite a stir amo officials say it is made on account of slack business, but the men say that there is plenty of business, and that it is utterly impossible for the locals to handle all the business. They think that the company takes this action temporarily to get rid of some employes who talked too much about the time the recent cut went into effect.

NO HEIRS.

A Legacy of Several Thousand Dollars Turned Into the Public Treasury.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan 6 .- For the first time in this county in many years a legacy was turned into the public treasury because the heirs could not be located. A. W. Krumm, a well known attorney, was the administrator of the estate of the late Dorotha Siebert, an old lady who died December 3, 1891, after living about half a century on South Front street. The home which she owned there was sold by Mr. Krumm to the city board of education for $7,000. Besides this property the old lady left a personal estate of nearly $4,000, consisting of bonds, notes, bank deposits, etc., and a will.

The will gave the proceeds of the sale to the collateral relatives of her deceased husband, who live in this city. Mrs. Seibert was a native of Germany. She had no family of her own, but had left three sisters in that country, and to the families of these sisters she gave by will her bonds, bank notes, etc., or rather the personal estate which they composed. Mr. Krumm distributed the money received from the board of education among the husband's collateral relatives, and made an effort to divide the balance among the German heirs. He found complications in the

The sisters are all dead and their heirs are scattered. The son of one sister has not been heard from since the Franco-Prussian war, in the seventies. Husbands of some of the deceased children of the sisters claim an interest in the shares that would have gone to their wives. Some of the heirs endeavored to send authority to Hon. Emil Rothe, of Cincinnati, to act for them, but the papers were defective.

The law of the state holds administrators responsible for the payment of legacies to the right parties, but a section of the statutes provides that if an administrator is not able to distribute funds in his hands at the expiration of six months from the time the final order of the distribution is taken, he may, by order of court, invest or place chose the latter course.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 3.—The senate held a short session Tuesday morning and went over to the house to hear the discussion of the 'ariff. In the brief period a number of bills were offered, however. HOUSE-In the house Tuesday morning the joint resolution offered by Mr. Beckham (rep., of Lucas county), directing an inquiry into the relative cost of biennial and annual sessions was taken up and discussed at length.
drift of the argument seemed to be that the ennial session question is an important one but that there is no necessity for haste in determin-ing the matter. A bill introduced by Mr. Doty (rep.), of Cleveland, was railroaded through under suspension of the constitutional rule, ap-propriating $60,000 for salaries and the mileage of members and the per diem of employes. No tice of a contest for a seat in the house from Seneca county was served by Henry K. Spooner (rep.), who wants to oust Charles Flumerfel (dem) The house got down to hard work Tues day morning just as if it had been in session for a month instead of a day. A great number of bills were introduced, and there was a great booming of oratorical guns on the resolution offered Monday by Mr. Lewis, protesting against the passage of the Wilson tariff bill.

COLUMBUS, Jap. 4.-SENATE-There was rather slim attendance in both branches of the general assembly Thursday morning, as it was the expectation to have adjourned from Wednesday evening to Monday next.
